PART-TIME JOB

The objective of your internship is to develop not only your technical skills, but also your inter-personal relationships and social skills within the workplace.

This experience will enable you to cultivate your leadership skills through qualities such as curiosity, adaptability, attentiveness, empathy, compassion and motivation.

The time spent at the company, you are first and foremost a representative of Epitech. The rules of correctness and politeness apply, including:

- ✓ correct behavior;
- ✓ correct attire and in keeping with the rest of the company;
- ✓ respect for the hierarchy;
- ✓ regularity and punctuality in your work, you must respect the schedule of the company;
- ✓ precision and performance are paramount, you are not on holiday.

Do not forget that you are bound by a contract with the company. You must respect the terms of the contract.

Do not hesitate to contact your teacher, we need to know of any difficulties you may encounter, but also to know if everything is going well.

In the case of any problems

In case of problems, support from the school is obviously there.

It is impossible to break your contract unilaterally. It can only be broken through an agreement between the three parties concerned.

Not respecting the correct procedure can put you in legal difficulty.

These possible incidents will not have an effect on your schooling as long as your conduct towards the company has been exemplary.
